

DAILY EXAMINER

J. W. DOWNS, Editor and Proprietor.

Local Intelligence.

Nearly Over.

The fording business.

Two hundred And fifty bales of cotton were shipped since our last Friday's report.

The sales Of furniture from our local dealers are very large.

Mr. King. Has an auction notice in to-day's paper. Notice it.

Business in East Waco, is reported as very good.

Buchanan & Hamilton. Of Comanche, are shipping goods from this market to that interesting little village.

Collection Day. (The first of the month) is never a pleasant one let it be never so shiny.

Notice. Advertisement of a horse strayed or stolen, from J. W. Brooks.

We saw Large quantities of hides delivered to merchants on this side of the river yesterday.

Dr. Kaufman. And the Hill county farmers seem to be upon the best terms, judging from the crowds we saw trading there yesterday.

See notice Of the Waco Cotton Spinning and Manufacturing Company in another column.

An immense Number of agricultural implements were bought yesterday by the "up country" farmers.

The Nymph du Pave. Were circulating on the other side of the river yesterday. First of the month you know.

Dr. Walte. A prominent citizen of Robertson county, with several friends and neighbors, were here yesterday, on their way to Seap Springs, Comanche county, where they are to settle.

Auction, Auction! Attention of the trade is directed to the advertisement of Messrs. L. King & Co., auctioneers. A good opportunity for purchasers with a little ready cash.

The places Of public worship were but slimly attended on Sunday. Bad weather plays the very deuce with outward piety at all events.

The difference. Charon says you over free, and Tom, Selman charges a nickel. He ought to have the "sticks" worn out on his back, dad burn him.

Our friend Peterson. Of the firm of Peterson & Blaffer, left yesterday on a business trip to Austin. They are one of the live grocery houses of the city, and have a well deserved reputation with the entire frontier.

We had The pleasure of meeting an "up country" friend of ours yesterday, who was kind enough to say, that the EXAMINER was fast winning favor among the people there. A better, more intelligent, or more worthy people does not live anywhere on God's green earth.

Our Telegraph Office is one of the most correctly administered in the State. Mr. Finks has won the regard of the people generally, as well as the company whom he has so faithfully served. It affords us a genuine pleasure to thus bear testimony for a worthy gentleman, and skillful operator.

Ed Lynham. The handsome assistant at Johnson & Wheeler's market establishment knows just how large to cut your slices of dried beef, which, by the way, they keep in large quantities, of excellent quality and prices perfectly in reach of all.

Devil Hug Corner was luminous yesterday, with the bright looking darkeys who had not been playing at "aunts" and who are waiting to get an engagement to go on a plantation for the summer.

We are Deeply indebted to our friends Mathews & Co., for an elegantly painted bulletin board. Those gentlemen are unrivaled in their business, and are painters of more than ordinary merit. If you want elegant work at reasonable figures, hunt them up on the corner of Second and Washington streets.

Fred Axling. Is certainly a genius in the way of providing the most palatable liquors, cigars, ale and beer; besides he sets an elegant free lunch every day, and his house, is crowded with respectable people all the time. If you require a dose of the "ardent" in its native purity, consult Dr. Fred.

Personal. Capt. John Claiborne, of Galveston, paid us the complement of a visit yesterday, friend "John" was a gallant soldier during the war, is a devoted Democrat, and a good fellow generally.

James Buchanan, of the Comanche Chief, was in town yesterday.

Disolution. The firm of Sedwick & Elliott is dissolved the latter retiring and Mr. Sedwick continuing business at the old stand in East Waco. The business of the firm has been prosperous, and Mr. Sedwick assures us that in his hands it will suffer nothing, either in the quality of lumber, cash, etc. in hand, or in the inducements offered, in both which respects, we are glad to say, our city as a market is unsurpassed.

Married.

It is with feelings of sincere pleasure that we note the matrimonial alliance of our talented young friend and fellow-citizen, Professor J. B. Cundiff, with the accomplished, amiable, lovely and pure Miss Georgia, daughter of our esteemed fellow-citizen, Col. J. C. McCarty, which happy event transpired last Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's father, on Austin Avenue, Rev. B. H. Carroll, officiating. We congratulate Prof. Cundiff on his good fortune in winning the heart and hand of such a priceless gem—one of earth's fairest flowers and greatest blessings. We wish for them gentle winds and smooth waters as they glide down the current of the river of life. May all their bright dreams and fond hopes of conjugal felicity be fully realized, and beautiful flowers bud and blossom along their pathway.

Field day. In the Criminal District Court on Monday, the following cases were tried.

Peter Toliver, (negro) charged with permitting his horse to run in Jno. H. Harrison's field, fined $10 and costs.

Jim Casey, (negro) same offence, $40 and costs.

Andrew Smith, (negro) same offence, acquitted.

Mark Hyder, (negro) same offence, acquitted.

Brown Cooper, assault and battery, fined $100 and costs.

We saw Two smiling young faces in a store-room on Bridge street, next door to Mr. Ed. Sturgis, that belonged to Messrs. Moore & Sturgis, grocers, who have lately opened there. We can cordially commend these gentlemen to our "up country" friends as prompt, honest and clever merchants, and we also advise our "up country" friends to keep a bright look out for their "big" ad. in an early number of the EXAMINER. They mean business, and no mistake.

We saw goods Yesterday at the commission house of Alexander & Lovel, marked for the following persons and points: Farwell & Thaxton, Ste. Henerville; Jno. Abney, Stephenville; W. C. Stiles, Stephenville; Downum & Bro. Iredell; Sam. Fossett, and H. H. White, Meridian; W. H. Thomas, S. P. Kemp, and P. M. Browning, Clinton; Sam. Fossett & John Elliott, Comanche; and Metheo & Co., Valley Mills.

When You go to Austin, put up at the Fitzhugh House, late City Hotel. It is kept by Colonel Fitzhugh, an old Kentuckian, who feeds in genuine old Kentucky style, which is to say the very best. The outfit is new, and accommodations unsurpassed. Terms moderate.

Mr. Geo. W. Hewlett, Cistern Builder, Waco. Dear Sir—We, the undersigned, having engaged your services in building cisterns or installing cisterns built by others, that proved defective, take pleasure in bearing witness to the superiority of your work, and in recommending you to the public as giving entire satisfaction in that line.

LUCKETT'S LINIMENT—LIVING WITNESSES.

Blue River, Falls County Texas, August 15, 1873.

Mr. S. M. Lusk: Dear Sir—I have been sorely afflicted with Rheumatism for several years, so much so that at times I have not been able to walk without the greatest pain for two and three months together. I have tried every remedy, and been attended on by several good physicians, but have never experienced any relief until I was induced to try "Lockett's Liniment." After using three bottles I am myself entirely well, and I cheerfully give this to the public, hoping that others may as this and profit by my experience, and speedily seek relief in this truly wonderful medicine.

PRATT'S ANTRAL OIL. Absolutely safe. Perfectly odorless. Always uniform. Illuminating qualities superior to gas. Burns in any lamp without danger of exploding or taking fire. Manufactured expressly to displace the use of volatile and dangerous oils. Its safety under every possible test, and its perfect burning qualities are proved by its continued use in over 300,000 families.

Millions of gallons have been sold and no accident—directly or indirectly—has ever occurred from burning, storing or handling it. The immense yearly loss to life and property, resulting from the use of cheap and dangerous oils in the United States is appalling.

The Insurance Companies and Fire Commissioners throughout the country recommend ANTRAL as the best safeguard when lamps are used. Send for circular.
